DETAILED ACTION

1. The allowable subject matter of claims 10, 12 and 13 have been withdrawn because the claims are rejected as the rejections as following:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 10, 12 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Churchill (1,946,149). Churchill discloses, in figs. 2 and 3, a storage container comprising a plurality of locking units 3, 5 to lock the container at different adjustable sizes; wherein each of the locking units comprises a locking member 5 at a side of the container, a rotary member 3 mounted adjacent to the locking member and having a plurality of locking holes so that the locking member is inserted into one of the locking holes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Churchill. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the rotary member from an elastic material in order to enhance the locking member being elastically fitted into one of the locking holes, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 2-8 are allowed.
7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Claims 2-8 have been allowed because the closest prior art (Churchill) does not disclose a locking member provided at a side of the cover, and a rotary member rotatably mounted at a side of the body.
8. Claims 11 and 14 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 10, 12, 13 and 15-17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to LIEN TM NGO whose telephone number is 571-272-4545. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 8:30 AM -6:00 PM.
